Last Saturday the 2 Benefit games were played at the local arena. Terrace Bay Ladies defeating Schreiber Ladies 2 - 1 in a good game with thrills and spills aplenty.

Betty Austin scored the 2 goals for Terrace Bay assisted by Olyve Harrison and Sparky Black while Schreiber's lone tally was made by Frankie Caccamo from Lorraine Weaver.

Before the start of the second game the Most Valuable Player Award to Cy Brassard was made by Jim Cumming in the form of a jacket.

The second game between the Superiors and the House League All Stars saw the House League defeated 14-2 in a game that was fast and fairly rough with the better condition of the Superiors showing up after the first period. John Falzetta in the All Stars net played a good game even though the score did not indicate it.

Harry Smith and Geo. Rouhainen were the winners of the 2 door prizes.
