SCOREBOARD

Shift #3	0	0	1	0	4	5	0
Shift #4	3	0	0	0	0	0	0

On Sunday, July 17th, #3 Shift downed #4 Shift by a score of 10-3. Rain interrupted the game in the seventh inning and umpire Gauthier ruled game over.

Timely hitting by Shift #3's

Bill Kurylo, Dick Marcella, Paul Malashewski and Charlie Simmers, plus a few costly #4 Shift errors put #3 in sole possession of first place in the 1955 pennant race.

A sparkling catch, made by Simmers, who robbed Henry Krahn of his Texas League single, brought applause from the medium sized crowd. Both pitchers worked well, Adrian allowing 3 hits 1 walk while Chopty gave up 6 hits and 4 walks.

No winner for our jackpot draw.

OFF THE BAT COLUMN

Last Saturday, July 16th, the largest crowd ever to assemble on our ball diamond was present to pay tribute to Bill Borsum, and to watch a six inning exhibition game between the Red Sox and the Blue Sox. After three full innings of play the game was stopped while the Little League Braves and Giants put on a two inning game, which ended in a one-all tie. These youngsters put on a fine exhibition and were well deserving of the round of applause that the crowd gave them. Then, following the presentations made to Bill and Mrs. Borsum, the All-Star game was resumed. Jim Moro and Marvin Osmar had each counted for a run in the second inning, and by the end of the fourth inning, after Marvin Osmar had crossed home plate again, the score stood 3-0 in favour of the Blue Sox. In the fifth Peter Diduch scored for the Red Sox and Johnny Schritt rapped out a home run for the Blue Sox, to make the score 4-1. In the top of the sixth, a double error allowed the Red Sox to score two runs and make the score 4-3, with two men out and no one on the bases. But the Red Sox were unable to stand up to the pitching power of Eddy Aho, and the game ended 4-3 in favour of the Blue Sox.

FASTBALL THURSDAY

Fans are "in" for a real treat this evening at 6:30. For the first time on our diamond, a Fastball game is to take place between Red Rock and our All Stars. Those who saw the July 1st tournament will agree that Red Rock is a great team. And when our All Stars recently visited Red Rock and came through with a tie, one can understand that the game of this evening will be a "thriller". Come out and support your team.
