LIBRARY NEWSBonjour Tristesse - Francoise Sagan

This is the novel causing such a sensation in Europe and America. The author is an eighteen year old girl who displays an astonishing style of writing in this her first novel. The story is not an unusual one - a young girl who has a problem father, and who tries to arrange his lonely life to suit her own life - but the clarity with which it is written makes it an outstanding piece of writing.

The Nightmare - C. S. Forester

A collection of Nazi concentration camp stories by the author of the Horn-blower series. While these short stories all have the same background, the circumstances in each make this book not the least bit monotonous to read.

500 AT SCHREIBER MASS SPONSORED BY KC COUNCIL

A congregation numbering 500 attended an open air mass celebrated recently. Sponsored by the St. Edward Council, Knights of Columbus, St.
Edward's Council 3554, the mass was celebrated by Father McHugh, Chaplain of St. Edward's. The sermon "What Constitutes a Devout Catholic and a Good Parishioner", was given by Father St.
James, Port Arthur.

Father Morris of Terrace Bay was sub-deacon and Father Greengrass of Marathon, was Deacon. Father Roenicke, Red Rock explained the mass symbolism.
George Bourguignon, St. Peter's Seminary, London, was master of ceremonies.

Peter Peterson, Elkhart, Indiana, was cross-bearer, Patrick Humenicki, banner-bearer, and Raymond Guillet, master of serving. Bart Cebrario was censor-bearer, Jim Duggan and Bob McParland were alcolytes, and Geno Caccamo marshalled the parade.

A color guard formed by 14 fourth degree knights of the Father Baxter Assembly and led by E. Elvish, district deputy, and L. Salini, faithful pilot, paraded from the church accompanied by 55 knights and 34 girls in their first communion gowns. Many visitors from the Lakehead and as far as Baird attended and marched in the parade.

Following the services a dinner was held for the local executive and out-of-town officers and their ladies at the Schreiber Hotel. P.J. Syvitski, Past Grand Knight, chaired the dinner and E. Elvish was guest speaker.
