LIBRARY NEWS

To Endless Night - Ewart Brookes author of "Proud Waters"

This is the story of the trawler Charon, and the sea legend of "launched in blood, live in blood." Self-made Ben Christian built this trawler and her crew was hand-picked, but during her launching she killed a man, and thereafter she is watched with suspicion. How many would she kill before she killed herself?

What Woman Is Here - Mary Blakewell, B.D.

The inspiring autobiography of a lady preacher of the Episcopal denomination, during her charge of St. Stephen's, a poor parish in the rural west of the U.S.A.

It is with regret we announce the resignation of Mrs. Hodgkiss as librarian.
 Mrs. Garvin is to replace Mrs. Hodgkiss as librarian. Mrs. Herron, in turn replaces Mrs. Garvin as Secretary.

IT'S NEW!!! IT'S DIFFERENT!!!

You've heard of cooking schools, baking schools, sewing schools, etc. Now, the Terrace Bay C.W.L. brings you a Freezing School. Yes, on the afternoon of October 4th, in St. Martin's Church Basement, Ann MacGregor, Amana's Home Economist, will demonstrate to all those interested, how to get the most out of a freezer. If you have a freezer, any freezer, or if you ever hope to have one, be sure to see this interesting and educational demonstration A turkey, a sirloin tip roast of beef and other items will be given away.
 Refreshments will be served. Don't let the shortage of baby sitters keep you away - bring the children with you. Admission - 50¢.
