C.W.L. NEWS

The November meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held at 8:00 p.m. November 13th in the Church basement. Mrs. Todd was in the chair in the absence of Mrs. Semeniuk. The Annual Christmas party was discussed and it was decided to hold it on Thursday, December 15th. All those interested in attending the dinner should contact or phone Mrs. Eaton and turn the money in to her before the end of November so that she can make the necessary arrangements at the Hotel.

Bingo was played after the meeting and a delicious luncheon served by Mesdames Gray, Ruzyski, Todd, Persson and MacDonald.

LANDSCAPE WITH CORPSE - Delano Ames

A Dagobert Brown and Jane mystery story. Our hero and his wife are holidaying at a Spanish coastal resort. During the celebration by the townspeople of their patron saint's day the effigy of their saint bursts into flames and the town's benefactor is discovered to be one of the carriers of the Saint - only he is dead. This novel is not quite so humorous as preceding Dagobert and Jane stories, but is a more complicated and puzzling intrigue.

There are 40 new childrens and adult books on the library shelves.

COUSIN ELVA - Stewart Trueman

If you need a lift and a bit of lighter reading - read this one! A most entertaining and funny story about a fictitious Cousin Elva - but by the time the reader has finished the book he is wondering of whom she reminds him. Along with the Purchase of a Bay of Fundy tourist resort Cousin Elva is thrown in for good measure and her hilarious management of the owners of Trimble's Tourist Home and its guests provides a good evening's reading.
