

OVERSEAS CHRISTMAS MAILINGS

Gift parcels must contain only bona fide gifts and must be clearly marked "Gift Parcel".

Articles enclosed in parcels to Great Britain are subject to British Customs regulations and/or purchase tax.

The usual fully-completed Customs Declaration form (91B) must be affixed to all parcels addressed abroad. Non-adhesive Customs Declaration form (15B) and Despatch Note (16B) must be completed and forwarded with the parcel where necessary.

The Export Permit regulations applicable to gift parcels mailed to other countries are outlined in Notice No. 2 on page 2 of the Post Office Weekly Bulletin

To ensure speedy and safe delivery mailers are urged to pack all parcels firmly and securely in corrugated containers wrapped tightly in several folds of thick wrapping paper and tied securely with strong twine.

Shoe-boxes should not be used as containers or fancy tissue paper as outer wrapper, nor Christmas ribbon to tie. Parcels may be sewn in strong cotton fabric for greater security. Mailers are asked to enclose suitable items only, which run no risk of breaking and damaging the other mail. The mailing of matches, safety matches, lighter fluid or any inflammable substance is strictly prohibited by law. Fresh fruits or any perishable articles cannot be accepted for transmission overseas. Glass jars and bottles should not be included, as they are likely to break and cause widespread damage and possible injury.

Substances which might leak and damage the mails, if sent at all, must be enclosed in leak-proof metal containers with lid securely soldered on and the container surrounded with absorbent material in corrugated cardboard, and securely wrapped and tied. Food in tin cans is however prohibited entry to Czechoslovakia, the Soviet Zone of Germany and Hungary. All food is prohibited to Roumania. All mail should be correctly addressed in ink and fully prepaid. Misleading abbreviations should be avoided. A return address should appear on each letter and parcel and a slip containing the complete address of the sender and the addressee should be enclosed in every parcel.

TERRACE BAY JUVENILES WIN OVER SCHREIBER

In the second game of the Round Robin series between the Terrace Bay and Schreiber Juveniles, the Terrace Bay team beat the hard-working Schreiberites.

The game was fast from start to finish. Tempers went high in the last period but prompt action by the officials Pineault and Hayes was taken. Danny Kenney was outstanding by scoring 5 goals. Jackie Marsh from the same line played a very hard game.

The final game of this series will be played this Saturday November 19th starting at 7:00.

It is encouraging to see the people who are attending these games.

These boys play good hard hockey and from the comments going around the customers like it very much. This final game will be packed with action so don't miss it. Admission is 35¢ for adults and 15¢ for children.
