ALL-OUT DRIVE BY POLICE FORCES CUT TRAFFIC FATALITIES-ACCIDENTS BY 50%

According to Attorney-General Roberts, 75 per cent of the Provincial Police's available men and vehicles are now on traffic duty. The better to trail speeders, the OPP is now using unmarked cars for the first time since December 1940.

All sections of the Highway Traffic Act are to be strictly enforced. The decision was made after studying statistics of recent years which showed that 90 per cent of accidents on roads are due to violations of the Act.
