to make it an action and study club.

Several individual problems were dealt with fully by Dr. Laycock in the discussion period, following which both Mrs. Porter, president of the Terrace Bay Association, and Mrs. Marge Hayes thanked Dr. Laycock. Mr. Joe Levesque of the Schreiber Home and School Association joined Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Hayes in their gratitude to Dr. Laycock in coming to speak before us, and also thanked the Terrace Bay Association for their invitation to join in this meeting. The evening ended with a social hour and tea served by Mrs. Steve Keller and her committee.

Prior to the evening's meeting a dinner was held for Dr. Laycock at the home of the president, Mrs. Don Porter. Members of the executive were present, and enjoyed an informal half-hour talk on "How an Executive should be run, the General Meeting, and on Programme Planning". During the day, Mr. Joe Wig had taken Dr. Laycock to visit at the three schools in Terrace Bay and a tour of the Townsite, over which Dr. Laycock was most enthusiastic.

LAFF A LITTLE

The five-year-old daughter of a roominghouse proprietor was punished by being made to eat her supper at a small table by herself in a corner of the dining-room. She was forbidden to speak to anyone and everyone conscientiously ignored her.

As they were about to begin the meal, the roomers heard the child say this blessing:

"Thank you, dear Lord, for preparing a table before me in the presence of mine enemies.
