

L
A D
I
C
E
Q
S
L
U
M
N

AROUND THE TOWN

Birthday candles glowed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Skinner, Elizabeth Avenue, on December 10th to celebrate the birthdays of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott, Schreiber and Mr. Scott's retirement from the mill.

The entire family gathered for the festive occasion -- Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Slater, Dianne and Donna; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Scott, Billy, John and Lola; Mr. and Mrs. D. Reynolds and Dougie, Schreiber; Mr. and Mrs. V. Thompson and Leslie Rhae; Mr. and Mrs. R. Skinner, Scott and Jane. The Scotts were pleasantly surprised by the arrival of their eldest son Jim, from Winnipeg, which completed the family circle.

Mr. Skinner proposed a toast to the honoured couple and at the conclusion of the dinner the younger members, Lola and Dougie, presented the birthday gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marsh returned home last week from a two-week vacation spent visiting with relatives in Fort Frances and Duluth and south.

Pat Hunt returned to Terrace Bay last Sunday with neice Colleen Valiquette. Pat had spent the previous two weeks with her Mother, Mrs. J. P. Hunt at her home in Egansville, Ontario.

Miss Gail MacDonald of London, Ont. arrived to spend the Christmas holidays with her sister-in-law and brother, Glenna and Jim MacDonald and has now decided to make her home here.

Spotted at the Lakehead last weekend were: Jim and Audrey Rowley, Mac Craig, Don Ollen-Bittle, Jack Humphries, Chuck Haviland, Dan MacFayden, Frank Burnell, Marg Phillips, Charlotte Ross, Rosemary Sernesky who brought home son Michael from a visit in Port Arthur, John and Ev Garvin, John and Freda Knight, George Morar and Bill Broome.

Miss Jane Porter, daughter of D. C. Porter, recently sang in a presentation of Handel's "Messiah" by the Vesper Choir of Missouri Valley College, Marshall, Mo. Jane, a freshman at Missouri Valley, is a pledge of Alpha Xi Delta, national social sorority.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
CHEESE SOUFFLE

- 3 tbs. butter or margarine
 - 3 tbs. flour
 - 1/2 tsp. salt
 - Few grains pepper
 - 1/4 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
 - 4 egg whites
 - dash tabasco
 - 3/4 cup milk
 - 1-1/2 cups grated American cheese
 - 4 egg yolks
- Melt butter or margarine; blend in flour, salt, pepper, Worcestershire sauce and tabasco. Gradually add milk. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until thick. Add cheese. Beat egg yolks: add. Cool. Beat egg whites stiff, but not dry; fold in. Pour into greased baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (325°F.) 1 hour. Serve immediately.

o-o-o

STORK CLUB

Congratulations this week go to Mr. and Mrs. Don Stewart on the birth of a son on December 13th, and,

Mr. and Mrs. Art Tanner on the birth of a daughter on December 14th.

o-o-o

GIRL GUIDES

There will be no meeting on Monday, December 19th. The next regular meeting will be Monday, January 2nd.

o-o-o

NOTICE

Anyone having Guide or Brownie uniforms to sell please contact Mrs. Don Boudreau - Phone 240.

o-o-o

o-o-o