LIBRARY NEWS

So Near and Yet So Far - Emily Kimbrough

This book is a worthy successor to Miss Kimbrough's "Forty Plus and Fancy Free". The author together with five companions gaily explore New Orleans and the surrounding countryside.

The Sixth of June - Lionel Shapiro

Set against the background of England during the blitz of World War Two. This is the story of a man who went overseas owing his loyalty and love to his wife, of his meeting with an English girl serving in the forces and their mutual attraction, the D. Day assault on the sixth of June brings a dramatic ending to their love story.

We would like to bring to your attention that the library is now open Monday nights. We would appreciate the adults using Monday nights rather than Monday afternoons if and when it is convenient for them.

C.W.L. NEWS

The monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held Sunday, Jan. 15th at 8:00 o'clock sharp.

The meeting was opened in prayer, led by Mrs. J. Semeniuk, President.

The main topic of the evening was preparations for our Annual Valentines Card Party.

This year our card party will consist of "Canasta and Bridge" which will be held February 13th, under the convenorship of Mrs. R. Kenney and her committee. For time and place watch your weekly "News".

A further treat is in store for our Terrace Bay people. The C.W.L. is coming out with a "St. Patricks Play" which is to be held March 17th, under the convenorship of Mrs. Ann Demas and Mrs. Rosemary Sernesky and our director of the play is Mr. Austin Wilson.

For the time and place, watch your weekly "News".

The meeting ended with a lovely lunch served by Mesdames Flater, Semeniuk, Checkryn, Wilson, Edmond, Newell and Edmunds.

Bridge was also played, and our first prize went to Mrs. Doris Legault. Second high to Mrs. Kay Anderson and consolation prize to Mrs. Ann Checkryn.

The next Ex. meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Muriel Flater.
