LIBRARY NEWS

A Cure for Serpents - Alberto Denti Di Pirajno

The Duke Alberto Denti Di Perajno writes of his colourful and fascinating adventures both as a doctor and administrator in Italy's former North African colonies. His tact and sympathy won the confidence of the tribesmen and enables him to present an intimate picture of the desert peoples.

The Case of the Nervous Accomplice

- Erle Stanley Gardner

A dazzling new Perry Mason mystery in which a black eye, a bewildered cabbie, a pile of junk and a body beautiful add up to one of the most intricate puzzles of Mason's career.

The library will be open Friday evenings beginning February 10th instead of Monday evenings.

On Thursday night January 26th the Brownies and their Leaders held a skating party in the Arena. It is reported everyone had a wonderful time. After games and skating about 50 to 55 children assembled in Leon's to enjoy hot dogs, cake and hot chocolate with the leaders doing the honours behind the counter. Everyone it is told left with glowing cheeks and full tummies.
