Terrace Bay Superiors take on Nipigon Flyers tonight February 2nd at 8:00 p.m. in the local Arena.

The high flying Superiors are still flying high, knocking off three more wins recently. At Schreiber last Thursday they took the Lions by a 6-2 score. On Sunday at Nipigon the Flyers lost to Superiors 3-2. On Tuesday, January 31st the Marathon Mercuries went down to a 6-5 score. This broke a jinx for the Superiors as they did not have a win against Marathon on Terrace Bay ice during league play. Strangely enough Terrace Bay have beaten Marathon on both road trips to Marathon in league play.

TRAFFIC EXPERT SPEAKS TO KIWANIS AND SCHOOLS

Sergeant Scarnati, Traffic Sgt., Port Arthur Police Department gave talks on pedestrian and traffic safety to Terrace Bay Schools and the Kiwanis Club on Tuesday, January 31.

Guests from various organizations were present at the Kiwanis meeting as follows- Constable Hayes (Police); Joe Marcella (Home and School Association), Doris Hansford, Fred Soughton and Jack Thomas (LongLac Pulp and Paper Company); Archie Driffield (Improvement District); Roland Wills (St. Johns Ambulance).

Sergeant Scarnati was introduced by Parker Gray who mentioned Scarnati's background and pointed out that arrangements for his trip to Terrace Bay had been made by the Civic Affairs Committee of the Club.

A very excellent talk followed in which the Sgt. quoted many factors of safe driving and the highway and city traffic act. He said that if you could travel with a policeman and see the wreckage, the loss of life and the injury involved that most people would immediately become more traffic conscious.

Driving faster than road conditions permit, lack of courtesy and carelessness are the major causes of accident. Driving is a privilege and this should always be remembered.

He highly recommended that adults always set a good example for children and that where possible safety belts be installed in the seat beside the driver. Sergeant Scarnati was thanked by Dave Locking. Des Evans-Smith, Kiwanis President, was in charge of the meeting.
