

COMMUNITY CHURCH

Sunday, February 12th, 1956

11:00 a.m. Morning Worship
The sermon subject for the morning service will be THE MARK OF A CHRISTIAN

7:30 p.m. Evening Service
Three sessions of the Sunday School are held each Sunday. At 9:30 a.m. the pupils of the Senior Sunday School meet.

At 2:00 p.m. the Junior Sunday school holds its session while the beginners assemble in the school room during the morning service.

Parents are urged to send their children regularly. As the programme theme for the Ladies Auxiliary for the year is "RELIGION IN THE HOME" and as many of the Protestant Churches are stressing EVANGELISM during 1956, it is hoped that our Sunday School can be an effective instrument in the cause of evangelism. The cooperation of every parent is invited.

LIBRARY NEWS

THE LUTE AND THE GLOVE - Katherine Wigmore Eyre

When Anne Carey left San Francisco to visit a Tudor manor in England that had belonged to the Careys for generations she had not foreseen the strange events that were to change her life into days and nights of terror. A bone chilling suspense story unfolds as she pursues the secrets of the past.

COUSIN ELVA - Stuart Trueman

When the Trimble's decided to operate a tourist home the deal included "Cousin Elva" a rollicking madcap old maid. Written by a Canadian author with New Brunswick as a background. You'll meet some extraordinary and lovable characters but "Cousin Elva's" antics will certainly amuse you.

COURTESY

Courtesy and safety are partners. In accident prevention it has been observed that lack of courtesy has been the cause of countless accidents. On the road, when we keep blowing the horn, cutting in on other drivers and hogging the road, every driver affected becomes angry and upset, and less able to drive safely.

The discourteous person in a factory is always doing things that endanger the comfort and safety of others. He forgets the ordinary rules of consideration of others. He leaves the door open that should be kept shut. He leaves tools where people may fall over them. He is careless of how he handles materials, and doesn't bother to call anyone's attention to a set-up or sit-
