KIWANIS KIDDIES CARNIVAL OF '56

The 1956 Terrace Bay Kiwanis Kiddies Carnival opened at the Arena at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday afternoon under the reign of three winter queens. One Queen was chosen from each school - Pat Romaniuk from the High School - Bonnie Thomas from the Public School and Jane Heenan from the Separate School.

A series of performances by the Terrace Bay Figure Skating Club opened the show. This portion was under the production and direction of Ivy Pattison, the Club Professional. Ken Weppler was Master of Ceremonies.

The Grand March took place after the figure skating with costume judging by three of Terrace Bay's nurses, Misses Mae Duquette, Elaine Dawson, and Mrs. Dorothy Yaromy, with the following results:

Most original boy - Ronnie Faust; Most original girl - Susan Brooks; Best Comic
