LAFF A LITTLE

A second baseman came into the locker room after a game full of close plays at his base, leaving him with a collection of cuts on his legs.

"Man!" he said: "I feel like the sorority punch bowl the way they were spiking me out there today".

"So this is your uncle's funeral?" he demanded of the startled youth.

"Looks like it," the quick-witted youngster replied. "He's the referee down there".
