LIBRARY NEWS

The Co-operative Bookmobile has again visited Terrace Bay and the library has another grand selection of new books and records.

The Man in the Grey Flannel Suit - Sloan Wilson

This novel is yet another study of one conscientious man's battle with his own integrity and his refusal to compromise himself. Tom Rath has returned from the war to a modest job, a house in the suburbs, an ambitious wife and three growing children. He has also returned to a constant nagging of bills and perhaps his own sense of inadequacy in providing for his family. A chance as a public relations for a broadcasting firm has brought him into close contact with the driving, hard-headed president of the outfit. Tom's immediate decision must be whether he is going to play it safe by turning himself into a yes-man or whether he is to stick to his convictions and earn disfavour as a fellow who speaks his mind.

F.O.B. Murder Bert and Dolores Hitchens

Special agents of the Los Angeles Railroad police found themselves up against something far from routine while investigating the case of a badly beaten Mexican, some baggage lost by a woman and the mysterious death of a man of some means who preferred to ride the rods. A fast moving and exciting mystery.
