

COMMUNITY CHURCH

Sunday, May 27th, 1956

11:00 a.m. MORNING WORSHIP

The Minister has chosen as his sermon subject for Sunday morning - "I Believe in the Holy Spirit".

5:30 p.m. ANNUAL POT-LUCK SUPPER

All members of the congregation are invited to participate in this fellowship. Meat will be provided but the ladies of the congregation are invited to bring salads, deserts and whatever they please. Those intending to attend are requested to get in touch with either of the following ladies: Mrs. R. Harris, Mrs. V. Hopper, Mrs. S. Lundberg or Mrs. E. Young.

7:30 p.m. EVENING SERVICE

This will be the final Sunday evening service of the season. Plan to remain for the service. The minister will preach on CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP.

Annual Congregation Picnic - June 16th, 1956. Please keep this date open. Further details will be published later.

o-o-o

LIBRARY NEWS

Maybe I'm Dead

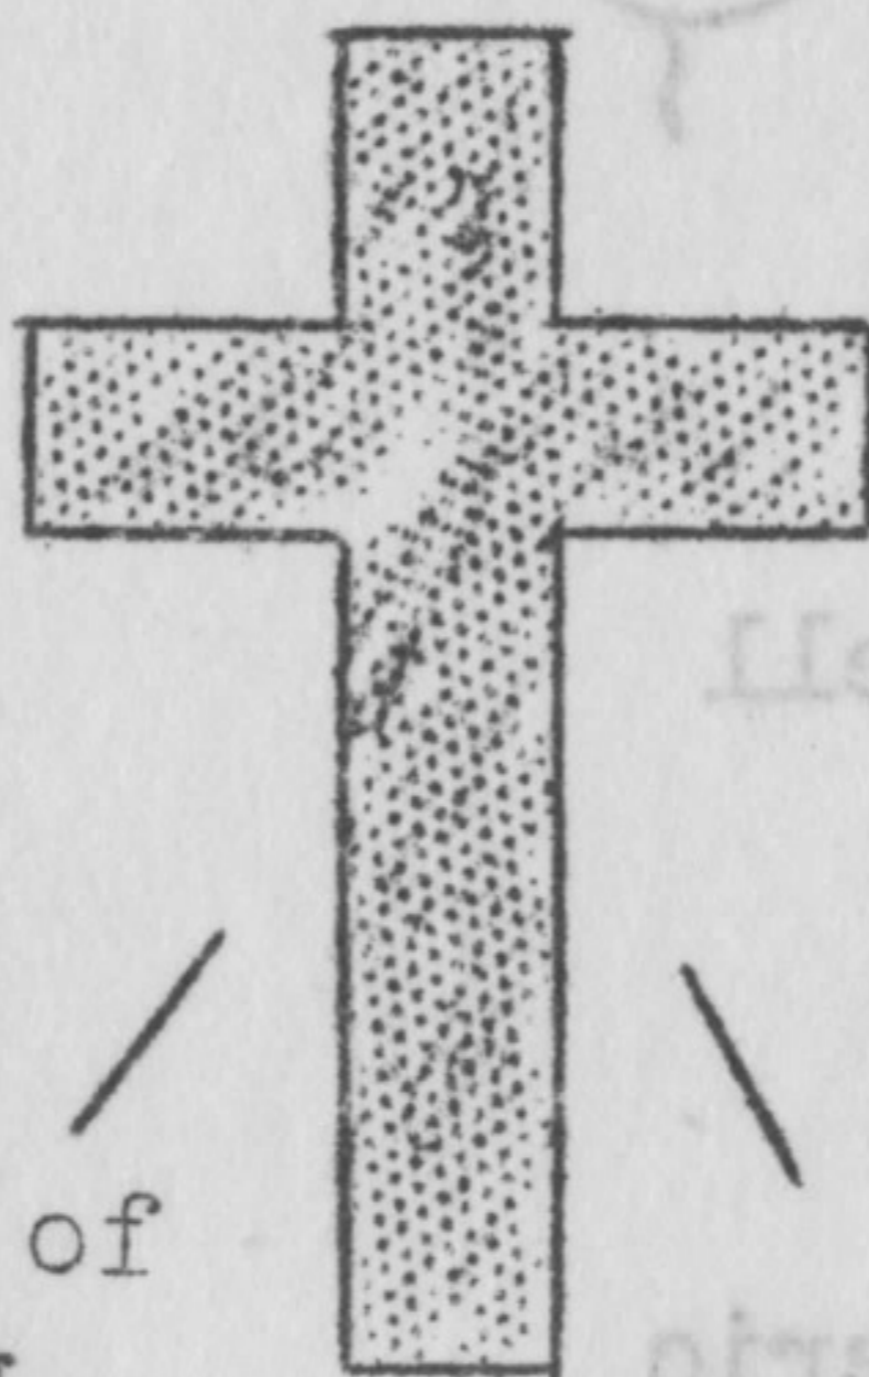

Joe Klaas

The author focuses his skill on portraying the mood-by-mood life of trained fightingmen who have been captured. Inapt incident and authoritative detail he builds a picture of the hideous uncertainty of their days. The story is set against the background of a forced march of ten thousand prisoners away from the Russian-German front, to an interior camp where they are eventually liberated. There are some half dozen leading characters, whose stories are told in a series of flashback chapters. There are two senior officers who lead the men in this unreal life, Jim Weis, who becomes a leader, Captain Daniel, ex prize-fighter who devotes himself to doctoring the multitudinous ills of the neglected men; (Cont. on next col.)

SAFETY SLOGAN

Thursday Noon May 24th, 1956 to Thursday Noon May 31st, 1956.

NORTH, SOUTH, EAST, WEST... DEFENSIVE DRIVING IS BEST

ST. MARTIN'S PARISH

Saturday, May 26th, 1956

Confessions 3-4 p.m. 7-8 p.m.

Sunday, May 27th, 1956

Masses 8:15 a.m. 10:00 a.m.

Mass during the week will be at 8:00 a.m. and on Saturday at 8:30 a.m.

Wednesday and Friday nights at 7:30 p.m. will be the month of May Devotions.

A reception for Reverend E. Gallagher, newly appointed Pastor of St. Martin's Church, is planned for this Sunday evening in the basement of the Church, immediately following Benediction (about 8:00 p.m.). The reception itself is being sponsored by the men and women of the parish and all parishioners and their non-Catholic friends are invited. Refreshments will be served by the ladies of the C.W.L.

o-o-o

LIBRARY NEWS (Cont.)

Maybe I'm Dead

Al Koczeck, who learns of the birth of his son at home, and others who manage to preserve themselves in soulless surroundings. Thunder Stone - Sylvia Cooper

Doctor Sholto, a respected and successful eye doctor is faced with two difficult decisions, one personal, one professional. Unhappily married to an infantile woman he finds himself falling in love with his nurse. The second decision he has to make is whether or not he should operate on a child, without parental consent. Enjoyable light reading.

Library Hours

Monday and Wednesday afternoons 2:30-4:30 Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings 7:00-9:00

o-o-o