HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY NEWS AND NOTES

A general meeting of the Society was held last Friday and thoroughly enjoyed by all those attending. Out of town visitors at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. F. McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Rollason of Fort William. Mr. McDonald gave a brief address and introduced the film "Gateway to Tomorrow". This film depicted industries in Fort William and district and was edited by the city's Junior Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Rollason gave an address and demonstration on "Floral Arrangements" which proved most fascinating. Draws were made for the various arrangements demonstrated by Mrs. Rollason, with the following lucky winners taking home beautiful flowers: Mrs. H. Freeman, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. D. Husband, Mrs. G. Brophy, Mrs. R. Todd, Mr. B. Jones, Mrs. F. Ginn and Mrs. J. Duncan.

At the next general meeting, which will be held on June 15th, Mr. D. Maat, Wills Nurseries, Fort William, Ont. will give a lecture on Bedding Plants.

All children interested in participating in the Junior programme, please register with Mr. C. MacDonald.

Any member wishing to purchase manure, may do so by placing their order (with $1.00 to defray hauling expences) with Mr. J. Duncan.

NOTE: Will Brownies and Guides be at St. Martin's Church Basement at 10:00 a.m. sharp to receive cookies. Thank you.

BROWNIE MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET - A banquet was held on May 26th in the Hotel Terrace honouring our Brownies and their Mothers. A very delicious dinner was served and entertainment was provided by the girls.

Brown Owl Mikus opened the evening with Grace, after which "The Queen" was sung followed by a toast to Her Majesty by Acting Brown Owl Kae Anderson. After the main course a sing-song was held, led by Brown Owl Mikus. Brownie Cathy Cavanaugh proposed a Toast to the Mothers to which Mrs. Betty Cavanaugh responded. A film strip "Her Majesty the Queen - Our Royal Guide" was shown with Commissioner Maitland doing the commentary.

Each Brownie pack put on two delightful skits which were well run and well performed. The 1st Pack's skit was called the "Lion Is King!" They also had an "Action Song". The 2nd pack did a skit in pantomime called "Miss Popularity" and a singing game called "Bingo".

Commissioner Maitland, the Leaders and girls formed the "Fairy Ring" for taps which closed the evening.
