 facilities for 790,762 boys and girls; and sponsored 9,162 baseball teams last year. Under their vocational guidance program, they aided 485,136 youngsters in their search for proper occupations; they aided 35,614 more through "Work experience programs"; and they counseled 38,954 veterans.

One of the objects of Kiwanis International is "to give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life." Kiwanians devoted considerable effort to their "support of churches in their spiritual aims" program in 1955. They conducted 14,250 "go to church" campaigns they furnished 13,712 lay preachers for needy churches; they sent 73,700 youngsters to religious camps; and they contributed the time of 24,720 of their members to the teaching of Sunday school classes.

U.S.-Canada Good Will Week took place during the period of April 22nd to April 28th. (April 28th was the anniversary of the signing of the Rush-Bagot Agreement which virtually demilitarized the 3000-mile border between the U.S. and Canada.) Kiwanis has sponsored this international friendship week for 35 years. As tangible evidence of the work which Kiwanis is doing in promoting international good will, the organization has erected 25 Kiwanis peace markers along the U.S. and Canadian border. One of these is located at each important port of entry.

The other annual observances of Kiwanis International receive equal attention from the organization; and are equally far-reaching in their impact on the peoples of the United States and Canada.

Clubs; underprivileged child; and vocational guidance.

Though fund raising is a minor part of their operation, they collected $5,844,371.81 in 1955, which they contributed to youth services of various kinds. They raised $4,296,300.60 for hospitals, and hospital facilities; they contributed $1,508,121.20 to needy churches; and they distributed $243,046.97 to deserving students through scholarship loans.
