PLAYGROUND PATTEN

Thursday saw the Intermediate and Senior boys busy at archery tournaments, while the girls had checker tournaments. On Thursday afternoon, the children had their lessons. A record crowd of 225 children was enjoying water and land activities.

On Friday, Terrace Bay Playground played host to Marathon Playground. The children enjoyed roller skating before entering the water in the afternoon. Games were enjoyed by both playgrounds at the beach.

Tuesday, the boys continued with the archery and checker tournaments, while the Senior girls rehearsed for our Amateur Night in the High School Gym under the leadership of Elaine. The Intermediate girls enjoyed making 3-D pictures, while the other girls were in the Gym.

On Wednesday, the Junior boys and girls started planting their seeds for our Garden Week. Later, they took part in finger painting. In the afternoon, horse-
