LIBRARY NEWS

Guestward Ho!

- Patrick Dennis

In 1953 Barbara Hooten, a young frivolous and carefree New Yorker and her husband Bill travelled to the west and before they knew it were managing a dude ranch in New Mexico. A most entertaining story, full of hilarious incidents and humorous accounts about their guests, employees and of course, themselves.

The Case of the Demure Defendant

- Erle Stanley Gardner

Doctor Denaire consults Perry Mason when Nadine Farr, undergoing treatment for a nervous condition and while under the influence of truth serum, confesses to the murder of Mosher Hungley, a man who had recently died supposedly by thrombosis. Perry feels the case is closed when he locates the bottle of tablets Nadine had confessed to throwing into a river and finds they contained only a harmless sugar substitute. However when the police recover from the same river a bottle containing cyanide, Perry is really in trouble.

USED CLOTHING FOR THE CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY

As you check over your children's school clothing would you kindly save any discarded warm articles for the "Clothing Cupboard" of the Children's Aid Society. For this purpose, the Ladies' Auxiliary is sponsoring a collection of used clothing. We will gladly arrange to have your parcel called for, when you have it ready. Please call Mrs. J. Wade phone 438, Mrs. F. Soughton phone 434.

Members of the Auxiliary are asked to bring their donations of clothing to the first meeting of the Auxiliary, Wednesday, September 5th.
