Dear Sir:

The following for publication if you wish:

The writer feels it a shame that so few adults turn out to support the PeeWees in their weekly games - So we offer the following in an effort to stimulate some enthusiasm.

THE PEEWEE'S LAMENT

So I scored a goal, thought I was alone,
Till applause came, From who? my kid brother,
To him, I'm his idol, but I've two other
"idles",
Both at home, they're my father and mother.

We Peewees aren't smart, but we all have a heart,
Some plays we might make but we daren't,
We might seem quite slow, but you should watch us go,
When we just get a smile from a parent.

We have already split with them in their own backyard, and if we can hold them here, we will have a new trophy to adorn our trophy case.

Rumors are around the town that this series is based on total goals, we would like to say here and now that this, in one sense of the word, is untrue but on the other hand it has a smattering of truth - Confusing, isn't it.

Nevertheless here is how it shapes up - the series is based on total games, and in the event that a tie exists at the end of the series - Then and Only Then will total goals be used as the deciding factor.
