SUPERIORS TAKE ON MARATHON

Sunday, December 9th is the day when in our arena, we'll see the Superiors and Marathon clash for the first time this season. This one should be a must on everyone's sports calendar and a good crowd is expected. Marathon supporters are many, and they are quite willing to travel 55 miles to see their team play. Their "invading our town" fully expecting a Marathon victory. The Superiors have other ideas, so for an afternoon of exciting hockey, plan on attending Sunday's game.

There isn't much to choose between these two clubs this year. Taking common opponents, Marathon lost to the Bearcats 4-2 and tied the Beavers 3-3. Terrace Bay lost games of 5-2 to the Bearcats and 6-3 to the Beavers. The scores indicate a Marathon win, but when you consider the Beavers used Marathon's spare goalie against them last Sunday, the game is rated a toss up. The team that wants to win this one bad enough will, as the teams are evenly matched otherwise.

Can the defence-minded Mercuries hold down the speedy Superior attack? Can the Superiors contain the Marathon offence? These will be answered Sunday afternoon sometime between 2.00 P.M. and 4.30 P.M.

Tickets for this game can be purchased Saturday afternoon between 1.00 P.M. and 6.00 P.M. in the Recreation Centre or else Sunday afternoon prior to game time.
