JACK WELLINGS ATTENDS KIWANIS TRAINING SCHOOL

On November 25th and 26th Jack Wellings, the incoming Kiwanis President attended the 1957 Western Canada District training school at Regina.

The school was under the direction of the incoming district Governor, Orren Paulson of Regina.

Sessions were held on all aspects of Kiwanis club organization, and each delegate brought back fresh thoughts and ideas to his home club.

New Officers will take over on January, and the Terrace Bay installation will be by Lt. Gov. W. Russell on January 8th.
