SUPERIORS PLAY MARATHON TONIGHT, NIPIGON SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

A big weekend of hockey is in store for Terrace Bay hockey fans beginning tonight, January 3rd when the Superiors seek to avenge one of their two losses when they face off against Marathon in the local arena - Game time is 8.00 P.M.

Thus far Marathon is undefeated in league play, and a win tonight would put them far out in front of the other 5 teams. Terrace Bay, with 2 losses, can ill afford to lose another one, so for an evening of fast and exciting hockey plan on attending tonight's game in the local arena.

Nipigon makes its first visit to town this weekend for games on Saturday night and Sunday afternoon. One of the Superiors two losses came at the hands of this Nipigon team, so a good game is in prospect. Nipigon has a big rugged defence, but we like to feel our boys and their speed will be too much for them.

Revenge is the password this weekend, and a clean sweep of all three games would enhance Terrace Bay's chances greatly. The Superiors will, we believe, even the score against the two teams that beat them. Let's have a good crowd at all three games to cheer the boys on!

FIRST BABY BORN IN 1957 ???

Again this year the Kiwanis Club of Terrace Bay intend to suitably honour the first baby born in 1957. The parents of the baby must be residents of Terrace Bay, and the baby must be born in Terrace Bay.

At the time of this writing a 1957 baby has not been born to Terrace Bay residents. A further announcement will be made in the next issue of the News.
