MEN'S CURLING CLUB NEWS

Local curling picked up momentum this last week and to say the least all curlers participating in the local club bonspiel and Northwestern Curling have had a full week of some very fine curling.

In the local club bonspiel the Louis Duquette quartette took top honours by defeating the Ole Olsen rink in a very fine game played last Sunday afternoon. On the same afternoon the Len Crockford rink defeated the Jim MacDonald rink to take top honours in the consolation event. A social was held Saturday evening in the curling club lounge in connection with this local bonspiel.

In the local Northwestern curling the Ole Olsen rink have cinched top honours by being undefeated in the double round robin that was held to decide Terrace Bay's representative in the North Shore playdowns to be held at Nipigon in the near future. The rink composed of Ole Olsen, Skip; Len Crockford, Vice-Skip; Red Wood, Second; and Howard Solly, Lead, should give a fine account of themselves when they go to Nipigon on Feb. 2. The local club members and the community at large wish them every success.

Rune Ostling, one of our old time members had the honour and distinction of representing Terrace Bay curlers in the series of matches Canadians are holding with the Scottish Curlers who are now touring Canada. Last Saturday afternoon Rune skipped a rink composed of representatives from Marathon, Nipigon, Beardmore and Terrace Bay against a Scottish rink skipped by

SYLVIA DUQUETTE WINS CONSOLATION IN SEAGRAM'S EVENT

Congratulations also to Sylvia Duquette, a first year skip, and her rink for winning the consolation in this event by a 10-4 score. Although the score of this game would indicate an easy victory, some very fine curling was displayed by the members of both teams.

Playing on the winning rink were: Sylvia Duquette, Skip, Dene Clancy, 3rd., Olga Crockford, 2nd., and Lois Haviland, Lead. The losing rink was skipped by Aggie Sinkins, with Audrey Rowley, 3rd., Margaret Anderson, 2nd., and Mrs. R. Boyle, lead.
