AROUND THE TOWN

Despite severity of the weather and other activities in town, enough members of the Terrace Bay Horticultural Society turned out Friday evening, January 18th., in the Recreation Centre to form a quorum and conduct election of officers for the 1957 term.

Reports were given by all chairmen of the various committees, President and Secretary giving in detail the very interesting results of last year's efforts. Election of officers were conducted by Mr. Willard Vezina with the following results: President - A. Farrow, 1st. Vice-Pres. - Hugh Brophy, 2nd. Vice-Pres. - Frank Ginn. The Directors elected were later designated to the following Committees: Junior Programme - Harry Goodfellow with co-chairman - Mrs. Conley MacDonald. Membership - Mrs. Don Husband. Annual Show - Hugh Brophy with co-chairman Frank Ginn; Hank Freeman to serve in an advisory capacity for the Show; George Maitland-Fertilizer; Vern Hopper - Library, Mrs. Dene Clancy and (Cont'd in next column)

HOME & SCHOOL ASSOCIATION MEETING

A subject very appealing to the folks of Terrace Bay, "Formation of" and "Government by the Board of", an Improvement District, drew many members out to the Home and School Meeting Monday evening, despite a real blizzard.. Mr. H. C. Laundry spoke first on the history of Terrace Bay. Described by Mr. Jack Kelty as one of the "Fathers of Terrace Bay", Mr. Laundry explained the planning involved in the creation of this town, and the precautions taken to prevent it's becoming a typical little "Company" town. Mr. Monty Paget as the present Chairman of the Board of the Improvement District, described the Incorporation of the Improvement District of Terrace Bay, the functions of the Board as equivalent to that of a Reeve and Councilmen, and explained details of it's operation. Time had to be called to cease the many questions fired from the floor and readily answered by the two guest speakers, when Mrs. Ferrier thanked them for their very interesting, enlightening and educational address.

During the business of the meeting, President Craig announced the position of Corresponding Secretary had been filled by Mrs. Alice Farrow and Publicity Chairman by Mrs. Isobel Marsh. Mr. Stan Hodgkiss, Secretary of the local Fish and Game Association was introduced to the Association and drew attention to the Conservation Poster
