AROUND THE TOWN

Mr. Percy McCredie on Sunday last, during his regular noon session of cribbage with his niece Vivian Hanna, had the long-anticipated thrill of holding a "29 hand". After more than forty years of playing cribbage, Mr. McCredie was more than a little jubilant over this event, but P.S., he lost the game!

A birthday party was held on Saturday, Feb. 2nd., for Roddy Larson who was celebrating his fourth birthday with the aid of six young guests. Darlene Larson assisted her Mother with the entertainment of games and records and in serving the birthday luncheon. Balloons and favors were received by the children before they left for home.

Mr. Art McCallum of Port Arthur visited his daughter, Betty Ollen-Bittle last weekend and returned young Jimmy Ollen-Bittle to the family fold following a glorious two weeks in Port Arthur with his grandparents.

Mrs. Daph Bradley returned home Wednesday from McKellar Hospital, Fort William where she had been confined for the previous two weeks, and is recuperating satisfactorily.

Mrs. Rose Dakin held a surprise shower for her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. Belliveau at her home on Friday, Feb. 1st. Twelve ladies were present to present lovely gifts to the very much surprised Mother-to-be. Just as the ladies were about to play the usual games, the husbands walked in and surprised the wives by holding a party in their honour.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

APPLE CRISP

1 cup flour
1 tbs. butter
1 cup brown sugar
5 - 6 apples

Melt butter and mix with sugar and flour. Spread mixture over quartered or sliced apples and bake until juice begins to come through mixture. The apples may be partially cooked first in small amount of water.
