knife or paint over it. There would be no fun if everything was perfect.

Sometimes we get more paint on ourselves than on the canvas, and you can get nicely "smudged up" with charcoal or pastels, but we rather enjoy the mess! It is a good idea not to wear your best clothes, in case you discover you too are the messy kind!

We are doing a portrait Thursday. For most of us it will be our first attempt at portraiture. We have some extra supplies, so, join us on Thursday night and try your hand at painting or drawing.

THIRD NAVAL REUNION

Saturday evening, Terrace Bay will play host to the North Shore Naval Veterans and their escorts in this, their third Naval Reunion. Some 70 persons are expected to attend this Gala affair held in the Hotel Terrace. The honoured guests for this year's occasion will be the Commanding officer of H.M.C.S. Griffin, Lt. Cmdr. T.C. Luck and Mrs. Luck. The old naval tradition of 'up spirits' will open the evening's entertainment at 7.30 P.M. followed by a buffet supper (cont'd. next column) and Dancing at 8.30 until closing.

This is strictly a Navy nite so come on all you old salts and polish up on your "Yarn Spinning" and rub elbows with old cronies - Grab a seat and watch Yesterday unfold itself for you today!

See you at Room 15-16 at 7.30 P.M. Tickets are to be picked up prior to Friday noon, in order that we may inform the Hotel management as to the number of people attending.
