

(Cont'd from prev. col.)

L A
D
I
E
S
C
O
L
U
M
N

-- RECIPE OF THE WEEK --

SWEDISH MEAT BALLS

1 lb. lean beef, ground
1/2 lb. lean fresh pork, ground
1c. mashed potatoes
3 crackers, crushed
2 small onions, diced
1 egg, beaten
salt and pepper to taste
pinch of allspice

Mix well in the order given.
Form into balls and brown in hot fat.
Remove from pan. Make gravy by adding water to drippings in the pan and thicken with flour. Season to taste. Add meat balls to gravy and simmer for 15 minutes.

o-o-o

AROUND THE TOWN

Congratulations to Nurse Glenna Redman and Ken Saunders of North Bay who announced their engagement on February 13th. Wedding plans are being made for early April.

The girls of her Knitting Club held a surprise Baby Shower Wednesday evening for Mrs. Pat Diduch at the home of Mrs. Doreen Kurylo. Many lovely gifts in a decorated carriage were received by the guest of honour. Eighteen guests were present and enjoyed games and a delightful luncheon. Assisting the hostess were Marlene Hanley, Joan Charban, Sophie Janicki and Virginia Galvin.

Another surprise "In Waiting" shower was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Partington for Mrs. Marion Ward by the girls of her knitting group. A very enjoyable evening was had and a great variety of gifts was received by Mrs. Ward from a fancily decorated basket. Assisting with the luncheon were Lorette Bolly, Virginia Galvin and Audrey Smith.

Another baby shower to completely surprise the guest of honour, Mrs. Margaret Laurenson, was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. Vicky Synishin. Many lovely gifts were received in a decorated doll carriage. Joyce Timpano and Cayle Sweet assisted the hostess with the luncheon served.

Doris Hansford had her Mother, Mrs. Alice Hansford of Toronto, visiting with her for the weekend.

Judy Holford is home for a week's vacation from Hamilton, Ontario with her Mother and Don, Mr. and Mrs. Don LaPorte.

Elva and Fred McMillan were in Fort William for the weekend visiting Elva's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward.

Sylvia Duquette had her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ballard, brother and sister Bert, and Fran of Cloquet, Minnesota, visiting for the weekend.

A birthday party was held last Sunday afternoon for Connie Tawcett who was celebrating her eighth birthday with the aid of eleven girl friends. Games were played and pictures taken before lunch was served by Mother, Mrs. Bea Tawcett and the girls left for home with their balloons and baskets.

Elizabeth and George Burns have George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burns of MacKenzie, Ontario visiting with them.

The Dim Bulbs met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Ruzyski. Following the business of the evening a Penny Auction was held and proved so popular another will be held next month.

Mrs. Lil Harris showed movies which were greatly enjoyed by all the members. An unscrambling game was played and won by Mrs. Betty Turner with Mrs. Sheila Zwaresh bidding strongly for the booby. The hostess in serving her "I'll go on my diet tomorrow" was assisted by Mrs. Louise Stuart and Mrs. Rita Cavanaugh.

o-o-o

(cont'd next col.)