HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

A good many garden lovers turned out at the Recreation Centre last Friday evening when the Horticultural Society held it's April meeting. Opened by President Ab Farrow who gave a brief outline of the Society and it's workings, minutes of the past meeting were read by Mrs. Mary Middaugh and reports heard from the various committee heads.

Mr. Farrow announced the commercial fertilizer of 4-12-10 would be available to members at $3.45 per 80 lb. bag with cash accompanying order to Mr. George Maitland or Mrs. Mary Middaugh prior to May 10th. Anyone wishing a load of barnyard manure may place their orders with Mr. Maitland. Members who did not pick up their premiums at the last meeting may do so from Mr. Farrow.

Hugh Brophy spoke briefly on the Spring Show to be held about the first of June and urged members to enter. Mrs. Mary Husband reported the Society now had 124 members. Harry Goodfellow outlined the progress made in interesting the children in a Junior Program. Following Easter holidays a meeting would be called when they would officially set up a Junior Club with it's own officers. There has been a request to Harry Smith for seventeen test plots.

Mr. Dick Matt of Wills Nursery, Fort William, commenced his speech with tips on the planting of peonies which were the premiums to Terrace Bay members this year. From there Mr. Matt continued to a great variety of bedding plants, with his suggestions for combinations, planting, etc., and care of lawns in spring and fall. In conclusion Mr. Matt showed a tremendously interesting film, "Peaceful Conquest" dealing with the reclamation of land in his native Holland.
