

Children's Art News Cont'd.

nevertheless these youthful energetic young artists show plenty of talent, and it is expected that when they have their exhibition of paintings at the end of the course, many mothers and fathers will be quite astounded and very proud of their offspring!

The first lesson consisted of memory drawing, observation, and a general run down of the proposed course. Next Saturday they will be colour mixing, so mothers have them bring an apron or wear something washable. We were hampered last week by not having tables due to the Mother's Day Dance, and the children had to squat on the floor, - will be remedied this week with the acquisition of these and more tables and chairs.

A CREDIT UNION TOURIST

As a Credit Union tourist you will meet people like yourself. Interested in seeing London - Paris - Rome - Copenhagen. - In a boat trip on Loch Lomond, seeing the changing of the guards at Buckingham Palace, visiting French painters at Barbizon, going to Mass at St. Peters in Rome, touring Kronborg castle where Hamlet's ghost still appears on suitable nights.?

In discussing Credit Union problems with officials of the Raiffersen, and Schulze - Welitzach groups in Bonn. In seeing how credit unions work among employees of International organizations in Rome and Paris. In shopping for silverware in Copenhagen, Leather goods in Florence, watches in Switzerland.?

These features and many more are offered Credit Union members who participate in the 1957 CUNA European tour plans for which are being completed by the CUNA World extension department.

This year's tour which is the fourth will leave New York on July 11, and return August 1 after visits to Scotland, England, France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, and Denmark.

The cost of the tour is $943 a person, and as an added bonus feature you can remain abroad longer than the scheduled three week period without additional charge for transportation back. This is not a pipe dream, other credit union members have done it, you too can do it by regular savings in your Credit Union.
