

THURSDAY, June 13th,
SHIFT 1 vs. SHIFT 2 - MAINTENANCE

In the initial meeting of the season between Shift 1 & Maintenance, Maintenance were the victors 6 - 2.

Errors contributed to Shift 1's loss as Maintenance capitalized on 7 miscues. Burella hurled a good game giving up but 3 hits.

For the winners, Moro with 2 hits, and Maurice Osmar with 2 RBI's paced the attack.

Outside of Brassard's 4 hit pitching, Shift 1 had little to offer although P. Diduch with 1 RBI and 3 stolen bases tried to keep Shift 1 in the game.

MONDAY, June 17th,
SALARY vs. MAINTENANCE

Well they did it again! Aided by timely errors and hitting, Maintenance maintained their undefeated status with a last inning spurt for an 8-7 win over Salary. Salary lost a heart-breaker as they held the lead throughout the game only to lose when it was just within their grasp.

Errors again contributed to Salary's downfall and the sharper fielding Maintenance took advantage of the miscues.

Burella for the winners & Chopty for the losers both pitched well. Marvin Osmar paced Maintenance with 3 hits, while Campbell slammed a long home run for Salary.

SALARY vs. SHIFT 1 - WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19th,

Salary defeated Shift 1 7 - 4 to climb into a 3-way tie for first place. For the victors Chopty hurled a neat 3-hitter and but for a few errors would have chalked up the first shut-out of the season. Smart base-running by Hanley, Hanson & Campbell paid off for the victors with Stephen's 2 RBI's helping the cause also.

For the losers Brassard again hurled an effective game also giving up but 3 hits. Errors at inopportune times cost Shift 1 the game although in the last inning a rally by the losers brought about visions of another last inning lapse by Salary.
