MARATHON TROUNCES TERRACE BAY 124-65 - BASKETBALL

The Terrace Bay Basketball Team journeyed to Marathon last Sunday for an exhibition contest with the Marathon team and were solidly trounced. Being confronted by a superior and sharper shooting Marathon team, the inexperienced but game Terrace Bay crew were completely overwhelmed.

Marathon were led by Maguire and Bell, two tall sharpshooters who chipped in with 28 points apiece, many of which were long shots. Macguire it is noted played Varsity on the University of Saskatchewan basketball team and is known to have scored 65 points in one game last season. Thus Terrace did well in holding him to 28.

Terrace Bay were led by Mike Moziar and Paul Marcella who hit for 20 and 18 points respectively.

Marathon journeys to Terrace on Sunday, July 28 at which time the Terrace Bay Hoopsters will be bolstered by 4 experienced players who could not make the trip Sunday and will be out to revenge their humiliating defeat.

Line-up and scoring for Terrace Bay:
Newton 8, Marcella 18, Roberts 2, Boychuk 2,
Moziar 20, Smylie 6, Baker, Zebrowski 9.
