Winn and Arnold McKechnie and the children motored to Victoria, B.C. to visit Winn's mother, Mrs. Ellen Hazelhurst and have brought her back to Terrace Bay with them for a few weeks. On their return they visited Arnold's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bob McKechnie of Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Percy McKechnie in Portage la Prairie, Manitoba, and saw the Stampede in Calgary. The trip was highlighted by a visit to Fort McLeod, Alberta where they watched the induction of the War Ace, Captain Douglas Bader, as an Honourary Chief of the Blood Indians, and named Chief Morning Bird, and his wife, Lady Eagle. Mrs. Bader was presented with a beautiful white elk purse. The children received scrolls of the event, and they watched for over five hours as the ceremonies and dances, previously closed to the public, were performed. They also had a visit with the Del Peppards now of Castlegar, and formerly of Terrace Bay.
