SHIFT 2 - MTCE, vs. SALARY

Shift 2 - Maintenance bombarded a listless Salary squad by a 13-6 count. Salary started off well as they led 4-1 after 2 innings as a result of Chopty's 2-run homer. However, Maintenance roared back in the 3rd on Maurice Osmar's 2nd homer and an error to count 5 runs and lead 6-4. This seemed to dishearten the Salary team and from then on it was all Maintenance. The Maintenance team again unleashed their powerful offense as they pounded out 4 homers.

For Maintenance, Maurice Osmar had a terrific night as he pounded out 4 hits including 2 homers and collected 4 RBI's. Stachiw showed well as he banged out a 4-bagger in addition to 3 RBI's while Bond also poled out a homer.

For Salary, Nick Chopty led the attack as he clubbed out a homer and performed well on the mound. However, lack of support at crucial moments, by his mates led to his defeat.

SHIFT 2-MTCE. vs. SHIFT 3-4

In a closely-played contest, Shift 2-Maintenance scored 2 runs in the 7th as a result of errors to eke out an 8-6 decision over Shift 3-4. The game proved to be close from start to finish and further showed the keen rivalry between these 2 clubs. After spotting Shift 3-4 a run on Desrosiers 1st inning homer, Maintenance roared back with 4 runs in the 2nd as a result of 5 hits, 1 walk and 1 error to take a 4-1 lead. They then ran their lead to 6-1 when with 2 out in the 6th, Shift 3-4 scored a splurge of 5 runs on 4 hits, 2 errors and 2 walks to tie the game up. This then set the stage for Maintenance's last inning rally which brought them the win.

For Maintenance, Maurice Osmar had another one of his many slugging nights, as he cracked out 4 hits and scored the winning run. Pluta, Hall, Dejonghe and Moro also helped the cause as they each pounded out 2 hits. For Shift 3-4 it was another all-round good effort and the game showed that not only do they possess power but that they are also real opportunists.

For Shift 3-4, Ed Zebrowski led the attack as he cracked out 3 hits including a double. Kurylo also showed well as he collected 2 hits. Aho on the mound pitched a good game, but errors by his mates led to his defeat.
