VEZINA - McBRIDE WEDDINGS

St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church, Terrace Bay was the setting for a wedding of interest here, when Miss Rita Marie Vezina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vezina, was united in marriage with Mr. Lorne Peter McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell McBride of Schreiber. Rev. E.A. Gallagher officiated for the double ring ceremony and Mrs. E. Pineault presided at the organ while Mrs. A. Gerow was soloist. Deep red peonies, bridal roses and white satin bows decorated the church for the occasion.

The bride chose organdy for her summer ceremony. Her dress was a romantic gown of imported sheer silk white organdy embroidered in roses and enhanced with hand scalloping. The sculptured bodice featured an alencon neckline and short sleeves with hand scalloping and tiny self-covered buttons down the back. The aisle-wide skirt fell in four fabulously full tiers with the hand scalloping repeated on the hemlines. Elbow length mittens with lily points complimented the gown. Her chapel veil of silk illusion was secured to a tiara of Mother-of-pearl sequins and she carried her Missal overlaid with American Beauty roses and streamers tied with rosebuds. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Anne Wery of Port Arthur was Matron of Honour and Misses Dolores McBride, sister of the groom, and Joyce Sitch were bridesmaids. Little Miss Sharon O'Brien, niece of the groom was the flower girl. The attendants wore gowns of sheer organdy over taffeta
