

in a style to compliment the bride's. Their gowns were waltz length and featured graceful necklines that ended in a "V" at the back, short sleeves and a low torso. The many gored princess skirts fell over delicately tinted petticoates to match. Mittens were fashioned of the same organdy. Mrs. Wery chose dewey green while Misses McBride and Sitch were in misty yellow. The wee flower girl wore a floor length organdy gown of pale pink with taffeta underslip, fashioned with a wide ruffled collar and large sash tied at the back. All wore crownless picture hats to match their dresses. Cascade bouquets of bronze mums intermingled with stephanosis and hanging clusters of ivy were carried by the attendants while the flower girl held a basket of pink and mauve baby mums.

Mr. Clarence McBride was groomsman for his brother and ushers were Messrs. Edson Morrill and Willard Vezina, brother of the bride.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and immediate family at Hotel Terrace followed the ceremony. During the afternoon the reception was held at the Curling Club Lounge with the bride's mother receiving in a sheath dress of flowered silk, topped with a beige linen duster, lined with the material used in the dress. Her accessories were of beige and she wore a corsage of talisman roses. The groom's mother chose a steel blue brocaded taffeta gown, white accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

The bride's table, covered with a white linen cloth, held the three-tiered pillared wedding cake, top of which was adorned with rosebuds and lily of the valley. Tulle and rosebuds surrounded the cake. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Lorne Vezina, sister-in-law of the bride and the servitors were Misses Bella Begin, Helen Laundry, Vivian Gresdal, Marlene Steen and Myrna Wainwright. Miss Joyce Sitch circulated the guest book and the toast to the bride was made by Mr. Clarence McBride.

The couple left on a honeymoon trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Hamilton, the bride travelling in a navy linen sheath dress with white and navy check bolero styled jacket, white picture hat and accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses. Mr. and Mrs. McBride will reside in Schreiber.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Theo Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Woodcock, Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson and family and Miss Doris Guarasci all of Port Arthur;
