

LADIES COLUMN

Recipe
of the Week

CRANBERRY DELIGHT

- 1 pound cranberries
- 1 cup sugar
- 48 marshmallows
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup milk
- 1 small can crushed pineapple
- $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of cream, whipped

Grind the cranberries and mix with pineapple and sugar. Set this mixture in the refrigerator over night. In the morning melt the marshmallows in $\frac{1}{4}$ cup milk. Cool the marshmallows thoroughly. Add the whipped cream and marshmallows to the cranberry mixture, set in refrigerator 2 to 3 hours.

Serves 6.

The Welcome Mat is out for several new arrivals in Terrace Bay this Fall.

Among them: Lloyd & Agnes Paulsen from Kenora, with their family of Diane 12, Jane 5, and Brian 1.

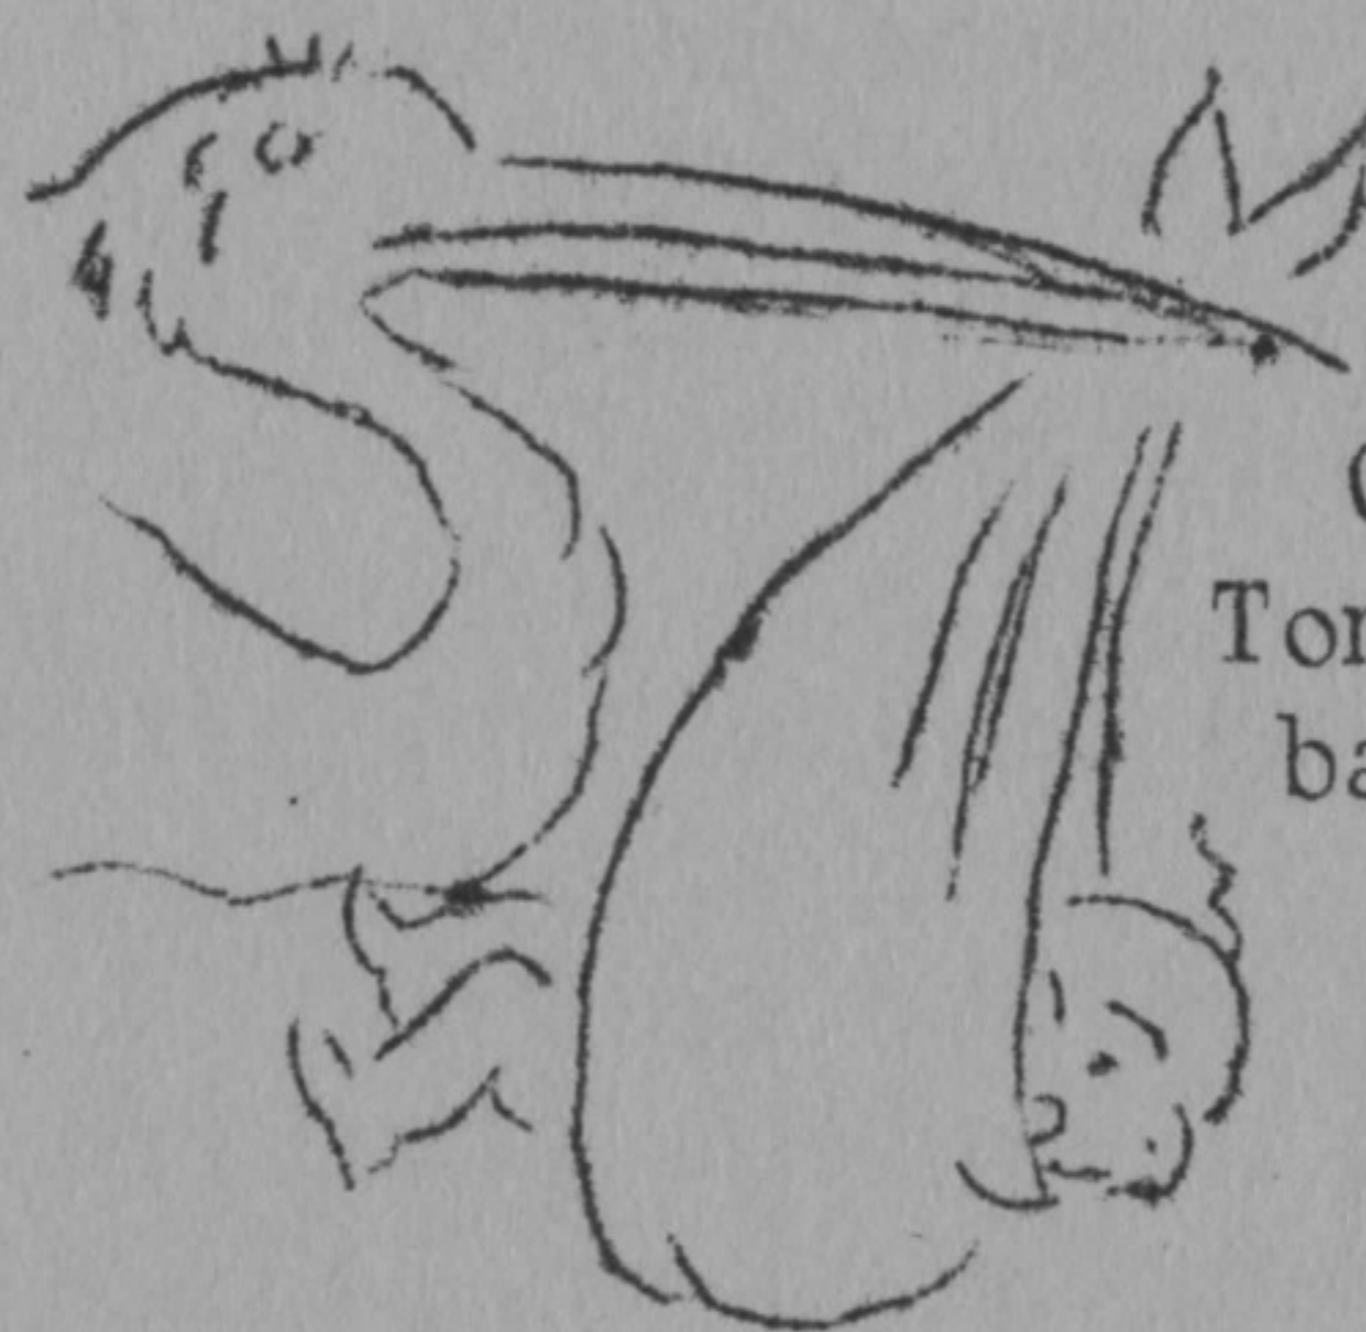

- The Paulsens are living at 210 Kenogami Road.

William & Rose McClenaghan, all the way from Ireland, with sons Samuel 8, James 7, and daughter Gwendolyn 5, are at 134 Poplar Crescent.

The Calders, Gordon & Jacqueline with children Diane 2, Carla 1, and Baby Vincent, are from Fort Frances, and living now at Terrace Beach.

(cont'd next col.)

A welcome is also extended to Miss Anita Brennan on the nursing staff at Terrace Bay Hospital. Anita is from Toronto, and is living at Hotel Terrace.

Stork Club

Congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Tom Smith on the arrival of a baby daughter on the 24th.

And to Mr. & Mrs. N. Bajkiewich a son, October 27th.

Around the Town

Steini Jacobson spent a few days in Terrace Bay this week renewing acquaintances and was accompanied by his bride, the former LeBeau St. James, of Winnipeg.

Betty Dodge was home for the week from Toronto to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dodge and her sisters Fatsy and Beverly.

Virginia and Gary Galvin were in the Lakehead last weekend with their children to assist in the Twenty-fifth Anniversary Celebrations of Virginia's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown of Fort Arthur.

Mrs. J. F. Hunt of Eganville, Ontario is visiting this week with her daughters, Mrs. Hilda Valiquette and Miss Pat Hunt.

Don LaForte and Reg Cotton were delegates last week at the Fourth Annual Northwestern Moose Convention held at Sioux Lookout.

Fred Soughton, Verl Thompson and Peter Romaniuk were K-C delegates to the Safety Convention held last week in Chicago, Illinois.

Guides & Brownies

The Guides & Brownies would like to thank the public for their assistance and co-operation which made their Cookie Day a success.