A successful evening of curling and a social was held Tuesday, November 5th. New-comers to the club were given instructions prior to a "fun" game skipped by Thirds with enjoyment in much evidence. Highlight of the evening was a presentation of a going away gift made to Ev Allen who will be leaving us shortly for the west coast.

Figure Skating News - All group lessons will be Saturday afternoon starting at 1:00 p.m. sharp. Each group will receive a 20 minute lesson from Mrs. Iattison. Skaters are asked to be on the ice ready for their lesson at the times listed below for the various groups. There will be a member of the ice committee in attendance at each session to supervise the ice.

Saturday at 2:10 there will be a Grand March for all members and an exhibition of solo skating by two different skaters each Saturday. Each skater in the Club will have an opportunity to do a solo or pair. Saturday, November 9, Arlene Coates and Gail Wood will give exhibitions.
