Ladies Curling

KAY THORSTEINSON'S RINK WINS SEAGRAM'S TROPHY

Tuesday night saw the finals in the Ladies Curling Club Seagram's Trophy Event. Kay Thorsteinson and her rink of Heather Lafontaine, Kay McLeod and Jackie Robinson, defeated Aggie Sinkins rink of Ann Kulcheski, Blom, and Cassie Hall, to win the Seagram's Trophy.

On the Consolation side of the event, Mary Hale and her rink of Lois Hopper, Mary Claire Kennedy and Jessie Biggar defeated Marj. Hamilton's rink of Mary Daskewytch, Molly Gross and Teresa Cattani to win the Consolation prize in the Seagram's Event. Here again both rinks had some excellent curling and a real fight to the finish. Congratulations also to Mary and her rink.

The Hudson's Bay Trophy event which is emblematic of the Club Championship will start on Thursday, January 9th. A schedule appeared in last week's "news"

Northwestern News - The deadline for submitting rinks in the "Northwestern" closed Tuesday night and we are very happy to announce that this year we will have 3 rinks competing for the right to represent our club in the zone playdowns. The rinks are as follows: Peggy Welling, Ann Latour, Ida Romaniuk, Sylvia Duquette,

Betty Bouchard, Mary Hale, Lois Haviland, Aggie Sinkins,
Kay Thorsteinson, Heather Lafontaine,
Norma Crockford, Kay McLeod.

Ladies Curling, (cont'd)

It is indeed gratifying to see the interest displayed by the Club in "Northwestern" and no doubt some excellent curling will be displayed before the club winner is declared. It is expected that "Northwestern" play will commence this week-end.

Men's Curling

All curlers are reminded that the 2nd half of the Curling fees are payable by January 10. Any curler who still hasn't paid his first half dues should do so immediately. Dues are payable to Jim Clancy.

The third round of curling started January 8 -- the season is fast approaching the half-way mark. Club members are settling down to more serious curling. Next week we will bring you a run down of rink positions so far in the schedule.
