HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY NEWS:

"And the wise men of the council decreed that the swords of battle be made into plow-shares".

We have all seen this happen in our lifetime and spring brings on more magic, we change our snow shovels into spades and another season of gardening begins. Too early to talk of spring? No! The Horticultural Society is already active in formulating plans for a successful gardening season.

At a regular meeting held on Feb. 21, a film of great interest on the coming of spring was shown. A discussion on various (Cont'd on page 3)
