Mrs. Eleanor Ruzyski read an article on St. Thomas Aquinas, Mrs. Mary Clare Kennedy read an article on St. Joseph -- the month of March being dedicated to him. The meeting was adjourned followed by a religious discussion which was very well conducted by Mrs. Jean Whalen. Questions and answers were on the Scapular and Miraculous Medal. It was Our Ladies plea at Fatima to pray the rosary daily; wear the brown scapular; wear the Miraculous Medal and make the five first Saturdays. For further information on these items you may contact Mrs. Marie Vezina, a crusader with the Soul Magazine and a member of the Blue Army of Monseigneur Colgan.

Lunch was served following the meeting by the March committee.

objective in education - day to day enjoyment and practical profit for those involved. They also hope this effort will help to raise the spelling standards of district boys and girls.

LIBRARY NEWS

The World of Suzie Wong - Richard Mason

Suzie Wong's world is the waterfront of Hong Kong, and particularly the shady little hotel, the Nam Kok, where she and her colleagues provide brief companionship for sailors of many nations.

Robert Lomax, a young painter, takes up residence at the Nam Kok because it is cheap and its habitues an endless source of interest and inspiration.

Between Robert and Suzie a curious relationship develops. His problem, what to do about this wayward and wilful little Oriental, is matched by hers, what to make of this amused and apparently disinterested Westerner, whose love appears capable of so much giving for so little asking. The World of Suzie Wong is a very moving love story.
