LIBRARY REVIEW

"Ghosts Incorporated" - Marjorie Talbot

This is a hilariously spooky tale of ghosts and people based on the history of the legendary character Cardinal Beaton who was hanged, drawn and quartered in Scotland. Cardinal Beaton's ghost returns through the ages, according to legend, to collect his legs which were hidden by his executioners

A young and handsome baronet, Sir Donald Gilburne, inherits the haunted castle, but not enough money to keep it going.

He and several friends enterprisingly initiate a "Ghosting Business," but soon find themselves playing hide-and-seek through the musty old castle with the real thing. The reader, to his amusement discovers that at times only he known who is who.

She called for a discussion among the group as to whether monthly meetings would be held in the local groups with a combined meeting every second month. It was left to the local groups to decide. The object of these local meetings would be to raise funds for the Fort William Mental Health Association.

Mr. C. A. Hutchinson of Linde Air Company of Winnipeg gave a very interesting talk and showed films on the Linde Oxygen Therapy. He was accompanied by Mr. R. H. Bjornson of Fort William.
