TEENAGERS HOLD EASTER BAKE SALE

A bake sale will be held in the old drug store at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 5th, sponsored by the Terrace Bay Teen Town.

The teenagers have been working hard to raise money to go to the annual youth rally - this year held in Dryden, and this is one of their major efforts.

The whole town has been canvassed for baking so there should be a wonderful assortment of cookies, cakes, and pies, etc.

We hope to see everybody come out and take home some lovely baking for the Easter Weekend.

If anyone, who was asked to bake is accidentally missed when the baking is collected, would they please phone 3200 after 1:00 p.m., Saturday.

MAY IN APRIL??

April weather in March, May weather in April -- any way you look at it right now its spring regardless what the calendar says. And spring time is clean-up time.

People have started to clean their property up already, so let's all put our efforts on this work during the next week or so and really have our town looking neat.

ANNUAL HOCKEY "CLASSIC" WEDNESDAY - APRIL 9TH

In the local Arena next Wednesday beginning at 8 a.m. the 8th Annual 'game of the year' takes place. -- The Lunchpails versus the Palefaces for the S.H. Memorial Trophy.

Both teams have been practicing and skating hard to get in shape? -- for this game. The Palefaces are out to even the score this year. Records indicate that this annual classic has been won three times by the Palefaces and four times by the Lunchpails. Last year the score was 6 to 3 for the Lunchpails. So the Palefaces are desperate to even the series. In order to do so some former pros have been reinstated for play in this competition. "Sneaky Pete" Harrison purposely stayed out of pro ranks this year to be eligible for play and will assist the Palefaces in the coaching department.

Drafty Peter Adamo is a big wheel this year in the Paleface bid for victory.

"Old Rugged" Johnny Gross, the Paleface manager is saying nothing. This could be a bad omen for the Palefaces.

The Palefaces know from experience that where there is no smoke there could be lots of fire.

We have had some tense moments in hockey this year. Would Canada win the world championship? Would Superiors win the North Shore League? Was the Rocket too old to produce goals for the Canadiens? Now!! - How many players will be standing on skates at the end of the Lunchpail-Paleface game next Wednesday?

We understand there will be a silver collection - proceeds for the Easter Seal Campaign.

Neither team has divulged their line-up but we believe both benches will be well-stacked with players (who will probably remain on the benches). So don't forget next Wednesday night folks. This game will not be televised or broadcast. To see it you will have to be at the Arena next Wednesday at 8 p.m.
