

LIBRARY REVIEW

Sarah Hall's Sea God - Theodora Du Bois

Sarah Hall is a staid widow of a Yale Professor who makes a most unusual cruise down the Inland Waterway with a handsome stranger purporting to be a Sea God.

A crown, a trident, and a giant conch shell, which her grandson Michael finds in the attic must have started this extraordinary adventure; for almost immediately thereafter, Mr. P. O'Seidon appears in Sarah Hall's life. This genial gentleman, claiming to be the ancient Greek King of the sea, talks her out of her sedentary middle aged existence into a highly irregular voyage from Connecticut to Florida.

In the thirty-eight foot cutter Swift Gazette, Sarah Michael, her niece Jane, and the handsome captain sail happily southward encountering tempests, piracy, romance, near shipwreck and even a glimpse of the fabulous Golden Fleece.

Library Hours:

Monday and Wednesday, afternoons,
2:30 to 4:30

Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings
7 to 9.

The Library will not be open Good Friday.

- - - - -

THANK YOU

We wish to take this opportunity to thank all our friends in Terrace Bay who sent flowers, cards, donations to the Handicap Club, and in many other ways helped to express their sympathy during our recent sad bereavement.

- Tops & Dave Locking and family.

- - - - -

PICTURES OF GROUPS IN ICE FROLICS OF '58

Final orders for copies of pictures of groups in Ice Frolics of '58 will be taken up to and including Saturday, April 5th.

Phone 3743 to order these.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK - MUSTARD SAUCE - FOR YOUR EASTER HAM -

1 tsp. prepared mustard
Pinch of salt and pepper
1 tsp. lemon juice
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup heavy cream

COMBINE mustard, salt, pepper and lemon juice.

ADD cream, plain or whipped, and stir well until the sauce is smooth.

SERVE a little with each portion of ham.
(Serves 4.)

AROUND THE TOWN

Mrs. J. Austin of Port Arthur spent the weekend in Terrace Bay as a guest of her daughter, Betty Bouchard and family.

Guests at the Tommy Latour home last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. J. Kross, Mrs. E. Graham, and Mrs. G. Kapitan, all of Marathon.

Guests at the home of Peggy and Jack Wellings last weekend were Mrs. A. MacArthur, Mrs. J. Cerutti, Mrs. M. Nesbitt and Mrs. B. Holt of Fort William.

Mrs. Kay Louk brought her son Michael home from St. Joseph's Hospital, Port Arthur, Tuesday.
