LIBRARY NEWS

- The Best Short Stories of W. Somerset Maugham
Although W. Somerset Maugham has written many distinguished and widely known novels, plays and essays, his greatest achievement as a literary figure is probably as a writer of short stories. It is in this form that his craftsmanship as an unpretentious teller of good stories is best revealed. His ability to hold the reader enchanted is well represented in the contents of this collection of seventeen of his best stories, including such favorite and famous works as "Rain," "The Letter" and "The Colonel's Lady."

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE - The Annual Cancer Drive in Terrace Bay was held Thursday, April 24th 7 to 8 p.m., under the auspices of the Catholic Women's League, St. Martin's Sub-Division of Terrace Bay. The Drive was a gratifying success. Donations to the amount of $444.69 were collected. The ladies who canvassed the town are to be congratulated for a job well done, especially in such inclement weather. A special thanks to Mrs. Yolande Boudreau, Mrs. Evelyn Falzetta and Mrs. Peggy Helmink for looking after the returns as they came in.
- Mrs. B. Cruickshank,
Chairman, Cancer Drive.

The "wild" things a few teen-agers do hit the presses fast, but the good things the majority do aren't always mentioned. So we would like to extend a special thanks, to those who worked very hard and well at the Father and Son Banquet Saturday night.

- Mrs. Peggy Helmink,
President, C.W.L.

The Ladies Curling Club regrets their omission of the names of Norma Crockford, Secretary, and Elicia Evans-Smith, Treasurer, from the list of officers slated for 1958. Also the runner-up in the Seagram event, the third on Aggie Sinkin's rink was Ann Kulcheski, not A. Rowley as previously announced.

CUB & SCOUT FATHERS - A camp work party leaves from the Post Office at 8:30 this Saturday. Tea & coffee will be served, but bring a lunch and swede saw and spend the day making the camp better and safer.
