

BUTLER - WEISS WEDDING IN STRATFORD
APRIL 19TH

Spring flowers decorated the main altar in the Church of the Immaculate Conception for the wedding of Mary Kathryn, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Weiss, 307 Queen St., and Wilfred Patrick Butler, son of C. J. Butler, 21 Bay St., and the late Mrs. Butler. Rt. Rev. W. T. Corcoran, DP, performed the double-ring ceremony and sang the nuptial mass with Miss Irene Dolger at the organ. Soloist was L. Lemenchick, who sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," and "Mother Beloved" during the signing of the register. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white brocaded taffeta, styled on princess lines with long sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil was held by a cap headdress of iridescent sequins and seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red Yuletide roses, stephanotis and white feathered carnations. Miss Elizabeth Klein was maid of honor; and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret and Miss Audrey Weiss, sisters of the bride. The attendants wore similar gowns of blending shades of blue chiffon with matching shoes, gloves, and headdresses. Miss Klein carried Lestra Hibberd roses and the bridesmaids pink Aristocrat roses with feathered carnations and stephanotis. Columb Butler, Kingston, brother of the bridegroom, was best man; and the ushers were Joseph Butler Terrace Bay, and John Butler, Assumption University, also brothers of the bridegroom.

At the reception at Victorian Inn, the bride's mother wore a blue printed silk dress with beige accessories and corsage of Lestra Hibberd roses.

For traveling the bride chose a beige sheath dress with turquoise and brown accessories and corsage of bronze cymbidium orchids. After a wedding trip to Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Butler will reside at Schreiber. Prior to her marriage, the bride was guest of honor at parties given by Miss E. Klein; Mrs. R. McDonald and Mrs. M. J. Bannon; and by her associates in the office of the G. L. Griffith and Sons, Ltd., where she was employed.
