

Baseball Banter (cont'd)

Stew McNeill led the Giants Sunday with 2 big hits apiece....The Terrace Bay team made 4 errors on Sunday and every error was directly responsible for a run. The result was a loss when an easy win was theirs.....The number of Pro Hockey Players and others performing in the L.B.A. is impressive. Walter Bradley, Montreal Royals; Bart Bradley, Allan Cup Champion Belleville Mac's; Jim Moro, Kelowna Chiefs; Hank Akervall, Jr. O.H., Jean Gauthier, Kingston CKLG's; Les Hunt, Seattle Americans; are only a few of those in the league.....This Sunday afternoon the Port Arthur Red Sox will be the guests of the Terrace Bay team. This with no question will be "The" Series. 1st Game starts at 1:15 and should be an afternoon to be set aside to come out and see the team perform. Mgr. Joe Nisby is laying 12 - 10 odds his Sox sweep the Series. If the boys play like they did last Saturday it may just be that he'll end up in Angelo's Spaghetti House eating his own words back or perhaps a bowl of alphabet soupSupport of the team is definitely required this Sunday. See to it that you're there and show the team you're there. Weather being good, no reason for less than 500.

CORRECTION:

In last week's News Jim Cumming was credited with the baseball write-up. Actually Mike Moziar is the man who supplies us with these fine write-ups.

Baseball (cont'd)

We would like to remind the fans that the 50¢ admission they pay entitles them to both games, and that the idea of the Silver Collection in the early innings of the Second Game is simply to allow persons (who had forgotten) a chance to pay for their afternoon's fun.

Tickets will again be sold at either end of the playing field, at the admission gates. You will be asked to retain your ticket stub so you may show it to the collectors when they make their rounds at the beginning of the second game.

'SEE YOU SUNDAY - 1:15
