

Wedding (cont'd)

Gowned alike, the attendants wore charming dresses of soft blue nylon chiffon in cocktail length. The fitted bodices of shirred nylon carried over the back in a low "V" forming a floating panel to the hem of the wide skirt. The maid of honour wore a white feathered cap and the bridesmaids wore blue feathered caps. They carried a bouquet of white mums and their ensembles were completed with blue nylon gloves and white shoes. The little flower girl dressed in pale blue flowered nylon over taffeta with blue sash and square collar, had white shoes and white and blue lace cap and she carried a basket of pink and blue coloured baby mums.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and family followed the ceremony in the Church hall, and during the afternoon a reception was held in the Curling Club Lounge. For receiving the Mother of the Bride chose a beige shantung fitted suit with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The Groom's Mother was gowned in a two piece dress of white and navy blue silk. She wore pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The Bride's Maternal Grandmother, Mrs. F. Higgins of Schreiber who also received, wore a navy blue suit of shantung with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

A white linen cloth enhanced the bride's table which was centred with the three tier wedding cake, nestling in white tulle and offset by white tapers in crystal candlelabra. The pillared cake was ornamented with bells and dove on top. The toast to the bride was proposed by Robert Godin.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. Doris Burnside cut the wedding cake and another sister Fay Thorsteinson circulated the guest book. Hostesses at the reception were Mesdames Elsie Ostling and Elizabeth Burns. Servitors were Mesdames Steffie Dorman and Carol Lindquist, Misses Janice Coe, Judy Thomas and Ora Mae Harness. Ray Simoneau, Hector McLeod and Peter Romaniuk were in charge of the punch bowl.

For their honeymoon trip through the States, the bride chose a beige and brown tweed fitted suit with panama accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. For her trip she used a natural three piece set of luggage, the gift of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Godin will make their home in Schreiber.

Prior to her marriage the bride was feted at a Miscellaneous Shower on May 12th at the Curling Club Lounge when Mesdames Doris Burnside, Lucille Diduch, Elizabeth Burns,
